Establishing Diplomatic Relations with more Countries

*188. SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA : SHRI SOM PAL :

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that there are several countries with whom India do not have regular diplomatic relations;

(b) if so, what are the names of those countries;

(c) what are the reasons for not having formal regular diplomatic relations with these countries;

(b) whether Government propose to set up missions in these countries in the near future; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI EDUARDO FALEIRO) : (a) and (b) Among the member countries of United Nations India does not have formal regular diplomatic relations only with the following 8 countries :

1. Federal States of Micronesia
2. Fiji
3. Haiti
4. Honduras
5. Liechtenstein
6. Marshall Islands
7. South Africa
8. Dominican Republic

(c) to (e) With Fiji, diplomatic relations were severed in 1989, due to that Government's discriminatory policies against Fijians of Indian origin. With the other countries, India's bilateral relations are monitored and whenever it is deemed in national interest, formal diplomatic ties would be established.

Early delimitation of constituencies

*189. SHRI SHIV PRATAP MISHRA : Will the Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are aware that Delimitation Commission is likely to take quite some time to complete its work; if so, the time likely to be taken by it;

(b) whether Government propose to take any immediate steps for the delimitation of constituencies; and

(c) if so, the details of the proposal ?

THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI K. VIJAYA BHASKARA REDDY) : (a) to (c) At present there is a Constitutional embargo on fresh delimitation of constituencies until the publication of population figure of the census following the year 2000. The Constitution (Seventy-first Amendment) Bill, 1990 seeks to provide for readjustment of constituencies without affecting the total number of seats allocated to various States on the basis of 1971 census. This Bill has already been passed by this House and presently stands referred to a Select Committee of the Lok Sabha. In view of the existing
